Three or four old Confederate soldiers were seated in front of a Galveston livery-stable telling yarns. thay got to fighting their battles over again, and finally talked about the hard fare they had to put up with during the fratricidal struggle. One man told how he lived on an ear of corn a day, and gave his experience with quarter rations of lean mule meat at Vicksburg, and so on, until each had told his tale of woe. Gilhooly waited patiently until they had got through, and then he spoke up

"Gentlemen, I'll just tell you about a supper I had a few years ago on a Western Texas stock rancho out on the Rio Frio, and if you don't own I've suffered more than any of you I'll treat the crowd."

"Let's have it," remarked one of the veterans.

"Well," said Gilhooly, "about two years ago I was taking a trip through Western Texas for my health. I had run out of provisions, but just before dark I came to a mot of timber, in which there was a small house. In it was an old woman and a young man, herson. I told her I wished to stay all night. She replied: 'Stranger, we haven't got nothing fit for you to eat, but you can spread your blankets on the gallery and stay all night.'
"I told her that I could put up for one night with the fare she lived on every day. After awhile I was called to supper. It consisted of water in a tin cup, some cold corn bread, and some beef, which had been dried over a clothes-line and fried in grease. I ate what I could which was not much, for it didn't taste nice, and rolled myself up in my blankets, and was about to go to sleep, when I was awakened by the arrival of the elder son, who had come in from herding cattle, and was very hungry. "'Mammy, I want my supper, he said.

"'It's on the table my son.' "'Hain't you got nothing but orn-bread and water?

"No, my son; you must kill a beef next week. "He tackled the dry corn-bread, but it was hard work, for presently "'Mammy, ain't you got no lard in the house? "'No, my son.' "After another struggle with the cold corn-bread, which needed lubricating so bad, he once more appealed to his maternal ancestor? "'Mammy, haven't you got little piece of bacon rind, or some grease of some kind?' "'Not a speck in the house.'

"Once more he sailed into the corn-bread, but finally as if grown

"329" multiplied by 25 makes the Republican insjority in Indiana Print it, paint it, carve it, post it all over town, and at the cross-roads.

Eight congressmen gained in one day is pretty good. Couldn't have done much better without more to work on. The Republicans got about all there were to get.

Trosk "well-seasoned ties" which chairman Harmim ordered by telegraph How do you reliah the picture? from l'hiladelphia don't seem to have arrived in time to do any good in Indiana. Steel rails and well-seasoned ties are not as potent in the Hoosier state as "mules" were in 1876.

HERE is the whole thing in one seashould the Democratic party, which has issue for twenty years, because it now confermes that it was wrong, be called to administer the Government?"

"Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad. The Democrats have been madder in the last two days than they have been since the campaign opened, and it looks as though they are about to be utterly destroyed as a political party. God speed the day.

Now THAT it is all over, we would that chalked the 329 shibboleth of his party on the houses and sidewalks of Decatur. We do not expect the hosses to tell us how much it cost them, or who their hirelings were, but if anybody else knows let bim speak out.

NEW JERSEY has been a dombtful State, too. It went for Tilden in 1876. How it will go next November is indicated by the result of Tuesday's city election in Newark-a Republican majority of $,500. A year ago the Democrats carried the city by 3,300. "Things is workin'."

In the last Congress, the Ohio delegation in the House of Representatives stord : Republicans, 9 : Democrats, 11. Yesterday's election shows that the Ohio delegation in the next Congress will be Republicans, 15; Democrais, 5-a gain of six members. Pretty good for the Buckeyes.

THE Republicans of Garfield's old district do not seem to have been seriously affected by the great Demogratio argument--329. They wheel into line with a majority of 13,000, which is a Republican gain of only 4,500 on the vote of 1876. So much for chalk and black paint. Let the 329 argument go: on; it is about the most effective cratic states? Even the solid south is thing the Johnnies have tried yet.

Want the campaign opened Alex. Stephens, of Georgia, told the Democrats that if they threw mud at Garfield they would elect him. But, Bourbon like, they refused to heed the warnng, and began a campaign of slander such as has not been known for years past. Not content with the ordinary modes of mud-throwing they hired midnight prowlers to go about the towns after honest people were abed, to smear upon houses, and fences and sidewalks the dirty slash that had been mixed by the bosses. It had its effect, just as Stephens prophesied, and now the bosses are kicking themselves in the magnitude of their rage.

frame, and he longs for a blanket to pretect him, but can't get one on account of

Tue Review shows its subserviency to the free trade South by whining about the contributions to the campaige fund made by "the monopolies created by protection." It is terrible, according to this organ of the solid south, for American manufacturers to work and spend money for the protection of American industries, but it is all right for British free-traders to help out the Democratic corruption fund, in order that they may profit by the downfall of our domestic manufactures by the adoption of "a tariff for revenue only." There is but one reason why any newspaper or political party in the northern states should take such a position, and that is subserviency to will show a net gain in the State of the solid south and its demands. That 2,002. This Committee concede the section will not have anything to do election of afteen Republican congresswith manufactures, and blindly imagines that all of its material interests would be subserved by free trade. The only political party which is permitted to live in that country demands the majorities and gains by counties : committal of the party at large to that doctrine, and its northern henchmenacoustomed to obey with alacrity and humility-meekly turn their backs to the obvious interests of their own soction and the real interests of the whole country, and, uniting with the employers of pauper labor in Europe, go howling over the country for free trade.

IT is just two weeks since the Cincinnati Enquirer started that foolish story about the withdrawal of Garfield and the substitution of Grant in his place. This was in anticipation of a Democratic triumph in Indiana, but tence. Says Harper's Weekly: "Why the "best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft aglee," and now that paper been steadily wrong upon every great can turn its attention to the policy which the Democrats are said to be off and putting up Tilden in his stead.

WE have looked in vain for that congratulatory dispatch from Hancock to Landers. Let the autoorat of Governor's Island putla fresh nib on his goose quill and send to the Great Disappointed an epistolary message of condolence at least. One good turn deserves another, and if Hancock will only lead the way Landers will feel under obligalike to know what Democrat it was tions to reciprocate on the morning of the third of November.

> THE Chicago Times' Indianapolis correspondent, of Oct 5th., interviewed Frank Landers as to the outcome of the Indiana election. Mr. Landers said:

The success of the national democratic ticket depends entirely upon my election. Mr. Hancock will double my majority if I am elected. It iam defeated he will be beaten by twice as many votes as I was. There is much uncertainty as to the result. No one can tell how it will be. I am, however, confident that I will be elected by from five to ter thousand majority, if they don't use too much money against me. If I am defeated by eve so small a majority the party will not endeas or to carry the state for Hancock. Such an at tempt would be the worst kind of foolishness HENDRICK's cry of "fraud" did not win in Indiana. The election on Tuesday would indicate that the people of Indiana believe that if the democracy had committed no frauds in 1876, there would have been no need of an electoral commission.

'STEEL rails and seasoned ties' are scat tered all along the railroads between Int dinapolts and Baroum's home in Connacticut.

WHAT say you, boys? Suppose we gain 53. backle in and give a bigger Republican majority than ever before. We can do it if we only try.

Some Returns in Detail.

A Stirring Address to Republicans

COLUMBUS, Oct. 13 .- Very little interest has been manifested here to-day over election news, the interest centering on the returns from Indiana. At Republican headquarters special telegrams have been received from the chairmen of committees in all but eight counties of Ohio, showing complete returns on Secretary of State and Supreme Judge. According to the returns from these eighty counties, on the vote for Secretary of State, the Republican gains are 7,905, and the Democratic gains are 5,658. The net Republican gain on Supreme Judge is 4,448. The counties yet to bear from are Brown Licking, Lucas, Ottawa, Ferry, Pickaway, Ross and Sandusky. Partial returns from Ross and Lucas show considerable Republican gains. The Republican Committee conclude from the above figures that Townsend's majority for Secretary of State will be close to 20,000, and Mclivaine's plurality for Supreme Judge will be near 22,-000. No figures have been received showing the majorities given for conpressmen, but enough is known to make the committee feel sure that the Republicans have elected fifteen out of twenty

At the Democratic headquarters there are returns from seventy counties, and these, the Democratic committee say, show a net Democratic gain of 1,573 on Secretary of State over Foster's vote. They say that the same ratio men. These figures are all that can be obtained to night.

Those three young men who kicked up a row at "Dan's Bank" on Tuesday night, and ended the racket by pistol firing Grand Outpouring of Jabilant Voters and without hitting anybody, had a hearing before Justice Peake on yesterday afternoon. Thomas Skelly was sent to the county jail in default of $500 bail, and will be tried by a jury at the December term of the circuit court. The other strangers, Bill Mason and Charley Dalton, who were implicated in the affair, were very properly fined, and were sent to the calaboose in default of payment, The pistol used by Skelly was found in the gutter in front of John Washburn's store on Tuesday night, where he had this community. All felt jolly and hapthrown it. It was picked up by Merchant Policeman Wilkinson.

One of the saddest spectacles observable in Decatur was the aged "Hero of Three Wars," seated alone part way up an obscure stairway, sobbing bitterly over the damocratic defeat in Indiana and Ohio. His head was bowed in deep grief, and there he sat for nearly an hour, seeking relief in tears. He was an attentive auditor at the Trumbull meeting, and had been led to believe that he would hear joyous news on the morning of the 13th. He has no reason to feel so very disconsolate and lonely-Kentucky has not yet been heard from.

WE find the following notable item of matrimonial news of interest to our readers in the Champaign Gazette of this week:

John Archer, the genial agent of the Avery plow company, and Mrs. E. A. Herrick, were married at Kansas. Edgar county on the 5th inst. They will be at home, in Decatur, after the 20th inst.

The advertised speaker of the evening.

We have been expecting something of this kind for several months, but didn't think that a Kausas lady would capture John's heart. Archer, we wish you joy, and increased sales of Louisville plows.

DEMOCRATS in Decatut are very busy just now attending to pressing business. affairs, and have no time to waste on the streets. They are becomingly scarce; but they will be on hand Nov. 2d., never fear. Therefore it behooves every Macon county Republican who has a vote to be at the polls and put it in. Votes count. We ought to roll up a majority of 690 in the county this fall.

Tur democrats have taken down their flag from the Hancock pole at Maron, and the rank and file of the party there are badly rattled and disgusted. Even the streamer that flapped from the top of the pole has disappeared. Imagine the feelings of the men who put their cash into that pole, if you can.

THE mainmoth Weekly REPUBLICAN was issued this morning. It contains a full account of the late soldiers' reunion, and other matters of interest. A few extra copies may be had at this office, if called for early.

In another column will be found the a lyertisement of a new firm, that of Korsmyer & O'Nelli, who have opened a plumbing, gas and steam litting establishment near the post ofice, on Prairiestreet. This is a solid firm and we wish Fred and "Jim?" every possible sucess in their new business relation. They also keep in stock shot guns, revolvers and sports nea's goods generally, and are ready to do all sorts of repair work in their line.

Died at the Bepot.

Last night at a late hour, a sudden death occurred in the ladies' waiting room at the Union depot, this city, which occasioned no little alarm for a short time. However, when the true state of affairs was ascertained, the little ripple of excitement abated, and arrangements were immediately made to place the body in a casket. The name of the deceased is Frederick Beamer, aged 26 years, who arrived in Decatur last night at 10:10 o'clock from Kansas, accompanied by his wife and two children. He had been in failing health for three weeks, and was on his way to Cunton where his wife's mother and other relatives reside. The body was expressed to Clinton at 7 o'clock this morning. The grief stricken wife bore up under her sad affliction with christian fortitude, and was given every necessary assistance by Col. White and others. A Serious Matter.

Prosecuting Attorney Harrold, of Williamsport, Warren county, Indiana, arrived in Decatur early this morning and left for home at noon. His business here was one of considerable importance, inasmuch as it affects the present and future liberty of Charles Ward, a young man whose place of residence is in this city, and of one of the wealthicst citizens of Warren county, Ind. Ward voted the straight democratic ticket in Warren county on Tuesday last, and the vote was that the copartnership existing between sworn in by the $50,000 citizen referred to. Subsequently Ward was arrested for voting fraudulently, but he was released on giving a bond of $500 for his appearance for trial, the wealthy gent going on the bond. Harrold says he has obtained ample proof to show that Ward's home is in Decatur, and that he and the wealthy Warren county democrat have perjured themselves. He will prosecute the case vigorously, and send both men to the penitentiary for a term of years. We are sorry for Charley.

Moore, on West Prairie street, from which point Mr. Moore and other gentlemen were escorted to the tabernacle. As the party entered the room through the Prairie street door they were greeted with general applause, which did not cease until they had become seated on the stage, surround-

The advertised speaker of the evening, Hon. J. H. Moore, was introduced by W. C. Johns, Esq., president of the Decatur Garfield and Arthur Club. He was received with a round of applause as be came forward, and a few moments elapsed before he could proceed. The General's speech, which occupied one hour and five minutes' time, was mostly given up to a reply to the adroit address made by Hon. Lyman Trumbull in this ceeded. The speech was full of good points, and was well received by the attentive auditors.

President Johns read a press dispatch from Indianapolis, stating that the Republican gains in Indiana up to that hour (9:15 p. m.) footed up nearly 6,000, and that Porter was making a speech. This announcement was the occasion for a general outburst of wild applause, and Dr. Curtis and others threw up their hats, thus adding to excitement of the exhila-

a Rang Challenge. The running team of Rescue Hose Co.

No. 1, of this city, the champions of Illinois and the team which at the late county fair made a regulation run in 412 seconds-a record that has never yet been made by any other hose company in the world,-will meet at firemen's headquarters to night, for the purpose of taking action with regard to the following challenge which appeared in the Council Bluffs, Iowa, Daily Nonpareil of Oct. 9th: Commenting on the wonderful time made at Sioux City recently by the Res-cue hose team of Council Bluffs, which,

by the way was the best time on record with the three thread nozzle used, the Decatur, Ill., Daily REPUBLICAN says: They have been having a notable contest of hose running teams at Council Bluffs, Ia., and the time is telegraphed to the Chicago Times of September 30th. In a run of 200 yards, (not 300), and lay 300 feet of hose, all connections, three thread nozzle, the Council Bluffs Rescue team, with but Il men on the rope, made the remarkable time of 44 seconds. This the tele gram claims to be the best time ever made by any hose company on this or any other conti nent, The Decatur Rescues, it will be remembered, made a run of 200 yards, put down 300 feet of hose, and called time in 411/4 seconds to challenge each other for a blood run, Now, nothing would give the Rescue more pleasure than to arrange for a race with the excellent team at Decatur, and we are authorized by Captain Thomas Bowman, of the Rescue team, to state that the Rescues will run with any team in the United States for any amount of money and at any time. In June next the state tournament of firemen will be held in Council Bluffs, when a citizens' purse of at least $500 will be offered for the fastest team in attendance at the tournament, which will be open to the world. We expect to see this contest one of the most exciting and interesting over held in this country. That would be a good time for the Decatur boys to appear, or if de-sired, the Rescues will run with them at any time between this and next June Let's have a spirited race, Den Thompson.

To-morrow night at the opera house the lovers of first-class amusement will be furnished a rare treat in the appearance of the celebrated and everywhere popular Denman Thompson in his familiar and wonderfully successful impersonation of "Joshua Whitcomb." He will be supported by the same company which supported him during 205 nights in Chicago, 142 nights in New York, 103 nights in San Francisco, and eight weeks in Boston + Mr. Thompson has heretofore appeared in this city, and the high character of his entertainment is too well-known to need any words of commendation. It is safe to say that there is more genuine and irresistible humor to the minute in "Josh Whitcomb" than in any other character presented on the boards to-day. Mr. Thompson in this role has won the favor of the best people of America, and al who attend the performance to-morrow night will be more than satisfied. Popular prices.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ELECTRIC BELT

With the chills and fever, the victim of unlaria may still recover by using this celebrated specific, which not only breaks up the most augmented attacks, but prevents their recurrence. It is infinitely preferable to quinine, not only because it does the business far more thoroughly, but also on account of its perfect wholesomeness and invigorating action upon the cutter water. THE largest stock of cooking stoves in town at Ashby & Andress'. 6-d&wif THE PAST has proved them, the present A Woman's Dress. Burlington Hawkeye

Our wife wants a dress. After two or three stores have been ransacked for the goods, the dressmaker is sought out. The matter of measurement is tedious, and then the matter of fitting is one of numerous and repeated trials. Finally the dress is finished and sent home. Then it is sent back to be taken in here and let out there, and at last, after the customer has been fitted more times for that one dress than her husband has been measured in three or four years, the dress comes home for the last time, and is pronounced by the wearer, her friends, and the dressmaker as a beautiful and perfect fit, and it is finished.

Beautiful it certainly is, far more beautiful than anything her husband ever wears. Colors and material, style, blending shades and contrasting bits of color, are all in the perfection of good tasts. No man can improve on that. But it isn't finished. When it is completed as far as the skill of the dressmaker can finish it, and it is put on, it has to be pinned. Somewhere; some times in two or three, often in a half a dozen places. It always requires a pin-Leave out the pin and the dress is all awry somewhere. On this broad continent there is not one American woman who can dress so as to make any kind of an appearance in good society without

Now, suppose our tailor should send our suit home, and when we put on the coat, we had to pin it at the neck? Or suppose there was no suspender buttons aft. and we had to use pins there? Suppose he made our shirts so that we should have to pin on the collar, how long would such a shirt or such a suit of clothes stay in the house? Who would be responsible for the language used by the man who had to pin his coat? No tailor would dare to so tempt the wrath of an independent man. But woman-alas she patiently pius on the dress that she paid some one $30 or $40 to make, and doesn't think anything about it. We will not pursue this pain tul subject. Let the women of America take it up, and think about it, and learn, in the noble independence of womanhood, to make their clothes before they put them on.

They Have Come. Bear & Einstein wish to inform their friends and patrons that they have purchased another new stock of millinery, notions and furnishing goods for ladies and children. They have now on hand a full line of hosicry, corsets, gloves, ladies underwear, and a full line of superior knit, such as juckets, hoods, nubias, children's cloaks and shawls.
